

AGON PARTNERS: A LAW FIRM SPECIALIZED IN ANTITRUST AND COMPETITION LAWS

HOW WE CAN HELP YOU

Companies who have to appear before the antitrust authorities or who are merging with another enterprise will always face legal and economic challenges. AGON PARTNERS gives you both speedy and sound advice in all areas of competition law and competition policy. In such cases, purposeful and targeted communication with the authorities, media and other stakeholders is also essential. After all, timely measures have to be implemented which counteract disadvantageous state regulation. We shall gladly take care of that for you.

AN OVERVIEW OF OUR EXPERTISE

Legal

AGON PARTNERS advises and represent companies before competition authorities and courts right across the legal spectrum of civil and administrative antitrust proceedings, as well as in all sectors of the economy. The following core competencies are to be found at the center of our business; competition agreements ("cartels", for example, in the form of distribution contracts or consortiums), abuse of power, tendering/procurement procedures or state aid, mergers and business partnering.

Compliance

Working closely with company management, AGON PARTNERS implements and controls effective compliance programs which prevent anticompetitive practices. We create tailor-made compliance policies and provide practical know-how training. Companies can easily integrate our compliance programs into existing processes.

Expert opinion

As a leading law firm which specializes in both the research of antitrust law and in teaching it, AGON PARTNERS puts together empirical legal and economic expert opinions which are used by our clients in a number of ways: As a decision-making tool for strategic alignment (new marketing concepts, preparation of acquisitions). For the communication of business decisions to the media. To enforce interests before competition authorities and the courts. Or in order to influence competition policy.

Public Affairs

AGON PARTNERS develops, supports and implements communication strategies and competition policy campaigns. We achieve the competition policy goals of all our clients through targeted media communication and by using our scientific expertise. In order to achieve this, we have the support of an outstanding national and international network at our disposal.
